Women's United States Championship Schedule of Play

Senior Moments...

Be kind to your kids; they'll be choosing your nursing home.
 Everyone has a photographic memory. Some just don't have film.
 I don't have hot flashes, I have power surges.
 Due to budget cuts, the light at the end of the tunnel has been turned off.
 My own mortality will be the death of me yet.
 Caution, senior moment in progress!

A man asked his wife, "What would you most like for your birthday?"

She said, "I'd love to be ten again."

On the morning of her birthday, he got her up bright and early and they went to a theme park. He put her on every ride in the park - the Death Slide, The Screaming Loop, the Wall of Fear. She had a go on every ride there was. She staggered out of the theme park five hours later, her head reeling and her stomach turning.

Then they were off to a movie theater where they ate popcorn and sweets and drank Cola. At last she staggered home with her husband and collapsed into bed.
 Her husband leaned over and asked, "Well, dear, what was it like being ten again?"

One eye opened and she groaned, "Actually, honey, I meant dress size!"

Ladies' Lines...

Is it true that the family of your love hates you?

- It is true. His wife said she is ready to strangle me with her hands.

Husband to wife:

- Darling, I have to confess you that when I'm having sex with you, I sometimes think about other women.

- Oh you jerk. When I have sex with other men, I always think about you!

There are two ways to understand the logics of women. Unfortunately, none of them works.

A lady comes to fortune-teller, who can read palms.

- Will anyone marry me?

- No.

- But you haven't even looked at my palm.

- I see it from your face...

Seniors' United States Championship Schedule of Play

Q. What did the bald man say when he got a comb for his birthday?

A. Thanks. I'll never part with it!

A well adjusted woman is one who not only knows what she wants for her birthday, but even knows what she's going to exchange it for.

"The secret of staying young is to live honestly, eat slowly, and lie about your age."

- Lucille Ball

"Inside every older person is a younger person wondering what happened."

- Jennifer Yane

"You were born an original. Don't die a copy."

- John Mason

Why couldn't prehistoric man send birthday cards? The stamps kept falling off the rocks!

Why did the older gentleman feel warm on his birthday? Because people kept toasting him!

Birthdays are good for you. Statistics show that the people who have the most live the longest.

I get everything I set my mind to. Now where'd I set my mind?

On a simple auction with three rounds of bidding, Griffey and Lay bid to 6H.

At the other table, Schwartz and Graves used seven rounds of bidding to reach 5H.

Eleven tricks are easy. The trick is to find the 12th.

Spike Lay did in short order. He won the opening club lead with the ace, drew two rounds of trumps, and led the seven of spades.

Chambers was forked!

If he rose with the SA, Lay could use the CK and the SQ to discard two diamonds from his hand. When Chambers ducked the ace of spades, his spade trick went away. Lay discarded the king of spades on the king of clubs and conceded one diamond.

Contract making for an 11 IMP gain.

Puzzle Page ...

Four people were very busy in the kitchen this afternoon. Each decided to make fresh cookies to go with dinner and so set right to work, mixing up the cookies from scratch. Unfortunately, each ran out of a major ingredient before the batch was finished and had to make an emergency run to the grocery store. Determine the full name of each cook, what ingredient each ran out of, and what kind of cookies each made.

1. The one who made the sugar cookies didn't run out of sugar. Cindy didn't run out eggs.
2. The chocolate chip cookies weren't made by Greg. Sara's last name wasn't Fohl. Peter ran out of sugar.
3. The person who made the oatmeal raisin cookies ran out of eggs. Mr. Smith didn't make the peanut butter cookies.
4. Ms. Bentley didn't run out of flour. The person who ran out of butter didn't make the peanut butter cookies.
5. The chocolate chip cookies, which didn't need more butter, were not made by the person whose last name was Fohl.
6. Greg White, who didn't run out of butter, didn't make the peanut butter cookies.

After seven boards of the Schwartz/Lay match, the score was 5-2. The first real swing came on Board 8. Both North/South pairs bid to 4H, which will always be defeated two tricks.

Schwartz, who had not raised his partner's club suit despite his six card support, decided to sacrifice in 5C. Of course, partner held the perfect hand and this was cold. In the other room, 4H was defeated 2 tricks. 10 IMPs to Schwartz

A difference in views?

Gloria and Les Bart did well to bid the diamond grand slam. If clubs or diamonds split evenly, there would be easy 13 tricks.

As the cards lie, it is anything but easy. The opening lead was the jack of spades followed by a club to the ace, a diamond to the king, and another club to the king. A club was ruffed with the queen of diamonds. Les led a heart to the ace, ruffed another club, played a diamond to the ten, and led the queen of hearts. Wold covered and Les claimed 13 tricks.

Not a great grand... but a whole lot better than playing in a 5-2 club fit. The auction seems strange, but assuming the VG operator recorded it correctly ... Not sure what went through Passell's mind when he jumped to the small slam in clubs, but he was sufficiently punished for the lack of science. 19 IMPs to Friedland.

4S	All Pass

Clearly this is a "Silence is Golden" hand.

In the room where Friedland sat North, he passed quietly over 1NT. His opponents had a simple auction to land in 3NT. Friedland led the ten of clubs to his partner's king. A club came back and the defense took the first six tricks to defeat the contract two tricks.

Jacobus, holding the North cards, bid two clubs on his six bagger. Les Bart was able to show game values without a club stopper. Since Gloria also lacked a stopper, she introduced her five card spade suit.

Jacobus led his singleton diamond. It went deuce, TEN, and declarer won in hand with the ace. Gloria led a trump toward dummy's king. Wanting his ruff, Jacobus rose with the ace.

Had Wold played a small diamond, Jacobus might well have switched to a club to get his ruff. At the table, Jacobus shifted to a heart. Bart won the heart, played the high diamonds and ruffed a diamond, played a spade to the eight and cashed the winning diamond to collect 10 tricks. 12 IMPs to Friedland

Limey Jack ...

Blimey but the Senior Yank Trials have gone wildly off the rails. Friedland, Lay, Street and Simson must all be chuffed to bits to still be in the main event. Three of them may even survive to fight another day. Even Brod is probably running starkers around the lobby actually getting a bye into the loser bracket. After tomorrow Morse will be gutted and Strul will be made redundant after having dumped Limey Jack's favourite Yank, Michael Becker. Had he played his career here, he would be Sir Michael. Meltzer and Capelli advance.

Friedland gets bounced by Lynch, Street throws quite a scare into Levine prior to the close, Kasle takes the measure of Simson. In the most exciting encounter which we hopefully can see on the Telly, Schwartz is upset by Lay. Limey Jack has a few quid on that one.

On the Ladies side, Moss has to be shell shocked to be flying home tomorrow, whilst Mandala only brought two changes of unmentionables.

Sprung-Baker: On paper this one seems pre-ordained in favour of Sprung. However, the Bakerites are both tough and mean. Sprung may prevail, but they will be knackered entering the first final.

Westheimer-Sonsini: Limey Jack hears bits and bobs about some bad blood lingering with the remaining four teams, these two among them. This figures to have some very rough patches along the way. Lots of experience on both sides, but some weakness is glaring on the one. Westheimer will emerge with a stunning victory. Sonsini may have a second bite at that very same apple down the road.

Limey Jack gives you the goods, Howie Dung gives you the runs.

Ta ta, LJ

Howie Doing...

It's form over field in USA1 ...

Easy to pick with the matches some done.

In Friedland v Lynch, I have to pick Wold...

After all, it's the Seniors and Wold rhymes with old!

It's Schwartz riding high and Lay laying low,

And word on the Street is that he's next to go.

Kasle is king and Simson is done.

He might end up 2 but he's won't end up 1!

In USA2, I'm picking Ms. Rose.

And though he's behind, Morse stays and Katz goes.

Sonsini's a winner and Westheimer's through.

Her team has a shot, but for USA2!

Baker is out and I'm picking Sprung...

That's how Howie's Doing, not how Howie's Dung!

See you tomorrow!!!

Debbie and Michael Rosenberg going over the hands with the Juniors at the USBF Junior Training Camp

Junior Update:

Today the team of Kevin Rosenberg, Ben Kristensen, Oren Kriegel, and Greg Herman took second place in the top flight of the Friday/Saturday Knockout in St. Charles.

These kids play well and play with confidence.

The Training sessions were great for them and they bonded with one another and with the Rosenbergs.
