Hospitality Suite...

Because of Covid, we won't be able to provide the full hospitality we have in the past, but we will do what we can.

Hosts Maya Alela and Marie-France Benoit will be in our hospitality suite (Room 2321). They will provide grab and go breakfast and lunch each day, except that on Monday and Tuesday, lunch will be a buffet in the hotel restaurant.

Breakfast: From 8-10 am. There will be individually packaged cereal, fruit, hard boiled eggs, bagels, and some hot options. Also individual butter, jam, peanut butter, and cream cheese, as well as condiment packages. Maya & Marie-France will be making coffee and will have individual packages of sugar, sweetener, and dairy & non-dairy creamers. For those of you who prefer Keurig coffee, that will also be available in the hospitality suite. We are limiting access to 6 players at any one time, so we ask that you come to the suite, pick up a large to go container and put the smaller packages in that to take with you as quickly as you can, and then go someplace else to eat. Masks that cover your nose & mouth must be worn in the Hospitality Suite at all times. There will be a hand sanitizer station near the door and we encourage you to sanitize your hands before choosing what to take.

Lunch: Monday, from 2:30-5:00 and Tuesday from 2:00-4:30 there will be a buffet lunch in the hotel restaurant. You will need to show a convention card or SSF to prove you're with the bridge tournament. Please tell the hotel staff if you see someone who isn't one of us, since we are paying for each lunch. From Wednesday on, lunch will be available in the hospitality suite from 2-4 pm (the first half of play each day ends at 2:35; we encourage those of you who are sitting out the 2nd quarter to go early). There will be a main dish (sandwiches, chicken, main dish salads, pizza) as well as tuna salad, green salad, cheese, fruit, and berries... Also all the individual packages of add-ons we have for breakfast. Water and soft drinks will be available in refrigerators.

Let us know what you want: If there is a menu for a future day's lunch hanging on the wall outside the Hospitality Suite, please mark what you want, so we have a better idea of what to order.

Playing Rooms & Player's Break Room

We will have bottled water in the playing rooms and if there is a refrigerator in a playing room we'll stock it with soft drinks.

We will also have bottled water in the Player's Break Room (1321), as well as soft drinks, nespresso, some packaged snacks, and some fruit.

AGAIN: Masks that cover your nose & mouth must be worn in the Player's Break Room at all times, so you may not eat and drink in the room.

You can follow the USBC on the <https://vugraph.lovebridge.com/> website. (See Schedule Below)

Popcorn time!

If you want to listen to commentary, search for the TV icon to choose from the available live commentary. If it doesn't respond, no one is commenting.

Nail biting!

You can choose the "Match view" at the starting page of your event and your screen will split into four small screens – two showing the two tables of the match you choose, the other two having the scoresheet for your match and the current scores of the other matches. In the 2x2 view you can also personalize the content in your windows. (The 2x2 view is not available on mobile devices.)

Think together!

When watching a table, click on a name and choose "Kibitz". Instead of seeing all 4 hands, you will see what the player sees, and you can decide what you would do and see whether your player agrees.

More Information:

The image of the sticker with the number of the board (upper right) takes you to the results of the board, in the bottom right corner the arrow takes you to the scoresheet, the DDS shows the double dummy analyses, beside that there is a button for the other table of the same match, at the top left corner you can see the bidding with alerts and the explanations (mouse over), the tricks already played, and the double dummy analysis for the available number of tricks with the par score.

Navigation icons:

While surfing here and there in the vugraph, or amongst the archive sessions, there are icons to help you. You can always go back to the main page with the "house" or to the standings with the "scores". If you cannot see the icons, move your mouse, or touch your screen and they pop up immediately. There is also a built-in back button because the back button of your browser will always take you to the starting page. If this is not what you wanted, push next in your browser and you can continue.

Replay:

After the event you can find every board from every table easily. While replaying the hands, the only surprise can be the way "next board" button works. If you have arrived from a scoresheet, it navigates through the scoresheet. If you have arrived from a screen where the results were shown for a given board then the same buttons move you through the list. Push every button and enjoy!

Why is England the wettest country? Because the queen has reigned there for decades.

What do you call it when Batman skips church? Christian Bale.

A guy goes to a pet store to buy a goldfish. The salesman asks him, "Do you want an aquarium?" The guy responds, "I don't care what star sign it is!"

What do you call bears with no ears? B-

Exaggerations have become an epidemic. They went up by a million percent last year.

I told my physical therapist that I broke my arm in two places. He told me to stop going to those places.

What did the swordfish say to the marlin? You're looking sharp.

How do you make holy water? You boil the hell out of it.

You know there's no official training for trash collectors? They just pick things up as they go along.

Did you hear how the zombie bodybuilder hurt his back? He was dead-lifting.

Where do you find a cow with no legs? Right where you left it.

They all laughed when I said I wanted to be a comedian. Well, they're not laughing now!

Into the SemiFinals...

On Board 5 of the first set, all four tables bid and played in 3NT. In Nickell/Fleisher, North declared at both tables. In Spector/Rosenthal, South declared at both tables.

Three opening leaders led hearts and one led a club.

In Spector/Rosenthal, both declarers succeeded. In Nickell/Fleisher, Bramley succeeded while Levin failed. Was it the defense or offense that led to the differing results? You be the judge! (Note: there was no bidding by E or W in either room.)

♠ 432 ♥ J4 ♦ JT75 ♣ AQ97 N Bobby Levin		♠ AJT7 ♥ T7532 ♦ 83 ♣ T8 E Joe Grue
♠ Q6 ♥ K98 ♦ Q964 ♣ J654 W Brad Moss

Grue led the H3. Levin, apparently trying to create an extra hand entry, inserted dummy's queen. Moss covered and returned the H9. Grue inserted the seven!!! Obviously he is trying to conceal the 5-card holding, but would the five not have done the same thing and been less obvious? If one wants the suit to appear to have started as 4-4, the five might have been better. Why did West not return 4th best if he held K952? However... Hampson made the same play at the other table so perhaps that is not the pertinent factor.

Levin won the HJ and finessed for the DQ. Moss won the ten with the queen and played the H8 to dummy's ace. Levin cashed two high diamonds and exited dummy with the C2 to his queen. He cashed the DJ and led the C7 to the TEN and king! He played the C3, and when Moss contributed the C4, he could have taken restricted choice and inserted the nine. That would have been successful. He guessed wrong and played the ace, hoping for the suit to have split 3-3 or for hearts to be 4-4 with the SA onside. He played the C9 to Moss's jack. Moss led a spade to Grue who cashed the 13th heart for down one!

♠ Q6 ♥ K98 ♦ Q964 ♣ J654 W Eric Greco

When Hampson led the H3, Bramley played low from dummy. Greco won the HK. Greco returned the H9 and interestingly, as said above, Hampson, like Grue played the H7. Dummy's queen won the trick. Bramley cashed the DK, both Greco and Hampson echoing. Bramley led the C2 to the 5, Q, 8. He took the losing diamond finesse and won the heart return in dummy. He cashed dummy's DA on which Hampson discarded a spade.

Bramley cashed the CK... noting the fall of the ten from East. He played the C3, and when Greco followed with the four, Bramley finessed the nine and collected nine tricks!

12 IMPs to Fleisher

Perhaps Greco's order of play in the club suit helped? The five on the first club play, the six on the second and the four on the third? Only Bramley knows ... At the other table, Moss played the six on the first club followed by the five and four in that order??

With the great declarers and great defenders as we are seeing in this match, the card play should be random but maybe they know each other's tendencies. We will never be sure!!

At both tables in Spector/Rosenthal, South opened 1D and West overcalled 4C. When Kranyak doubled, presumably “negative” showing values, Demuy bid 4H and played it there. With all North’s controls, it might have been prudent for Kranyak to have made a move toward slam.

At the other table in that match, when Bathurst bid 4C, Rosenthal doubled and Silverstein bid 4H, but Rosenthal persisted. He asked for keycards and when Silverstein bid 5S showing two with the queen, they were committed to slam.

In the Nickell/Fleisher match, Greco took an obscure view (at least based on the actions of his fellow experts). He overcalled 3C, leaving his opponents more room to explore.

Bramley was able to show diamond support along with four cards in the heart suit... and Woolsey could temporize with 4C to show interest in slam with two good fits.

Accordingly, Woolsey/Bramley bid 6H and played it there.

At their counterparts table, Moss bid 4C and Levin chose to show the strength of his hand with a 5C cuebid. Weinstein had nothing safe to bid but 5D at this point. Perhaps Levin could have guessed that Weinstein had enough to cover his losers and come to 12 tricks but if Weinstein held the SKQJ and the HKQ and the CK or J, he would have a clear opener and North/South would be off two aces!

Poor Katz... and on his 65th birthday yet! Based on the opponents' bidding, it sounded like North/South held ten spades. Katz, playing Nick for a singleton spade, bid to 6C.

Martel led the SK and it was over at trick three. Katz won the spade and played a high club. Martel rose with the ace and cashed the high spade for one down.

At the other table in Nickell/Fleisher, East/West stopped in the heart game and took an easy ten tricks.

When judging whether or not to bid a non-vulnerable game in IMPs, one is dealing with 6 IMPs one way or the other... certainly not a major sounding swing... That said, Nickell prevailed in yesterday's match by TWO! Six IMPs can be significant.

On Board 8, three of the four tables bid a non-vulnerable game... two in NT and one in spades.

In Spector/Rosenthal, Ginossar opened the East hand 1S; Willenken raised him to 2S; and Ginossar bid the spade game.

At the other table in that match, Hurd opened the East hand 2NT; and Bathurst raised him to the NT game. With suits behaving nicely, both games make fairly easily.

In Nickell/Fleisher, Hampson opened the East hand 2NT showing 19-21 and Greco, with five points and a five card suit, again raised to the NT game.

But there's always an outlier... In this case, the outlier was Grue/Moss. They were playing the most sophisticated of systems: Precision. Grue opened the East hand one Precision club. Moss responded 1D showing 0-7 HCP. Grue bid 1S indicating a possible 4-card suit, canapé with a longer minor... or possibly 4-1-4-4. Moss responded 1NT, 0-5 HCP, fewer than four spades. Grue passed and Nickell gained 6 IMPs.

Grue might well have bid or at least invited game if vulnerable... Moss had a "max" for his negative response and he would have accepted any invitation.

Bridge is scientific in its own way, but sometimes, even science fails us. It's not often that "generic" bidding systems succeed while Precision fails!!

The Ultimate Hand in the QuarterFinal Nickell/Kolesnik Match

The Nickell/Kolesnik quarterfinal match was a real nail-biter. With two boards to go, Kolesnik had an 8 IMP lead. On the penultimate board (#59), both sides played in 3H from the North hand. With sure losers in the side suits, the key is to bring in the trump suit for one loser.

DelMonte led the C9 against Hampson. Hampson won the CA and played the HT. In an effort to deceive declarer, Finn Kolesnik covered with the HK. Hampson was not fooled. DelMonte's preemptive 3C bid led Geoff to believe that he should safety play the heart suit. Hampson won the HA and played the DK. Ish won and played the CQ to Finn's ace. Seeing that declarer was likely going to safety play the trump suit, Kolesnik exited with the H6. Again, Hampson was not fooled, he played the H7 and took two finesses in spades to score nine tricks.

At the other table, Steve Weinstein overcalled only 2C and led the CQ. Kevin Rosenberg won the CA and played the HT. Levin covered with the jack. Rosenberg won the HQ and cashed the HA, losing two trump tricks... Contract failing by one.

5 IMPs to Nickell

The Kolesnik margin was 3 IMPs with one board to play. Throughout the match, the Kolesnik squad gained by being aggressive at the right times. Finn/Ish had bid three slams that were not bid by the Nickell squad. Two of the three slams made for gains of 12 and 13 IMPs. The third slam was a 5 IMP loss on a part-score hand. (see Thursday and Friday Bulletins for coverage...)

Board 60 provided a test for aggressive bidding. Both North players opened 1H.

The auctions diverged from there.

When Greco held the South hand, he judged that 11 HCP and a singleton in partner's suit were not adequate to make a game forcing 2/1. Therefore, he responded 1NT (semi-forcing) and passed Hampson's 2H re-bid. Kolesnik balanced with 2S on the West cards. This was passed around to Greco, who reopened with double. With a minimum opener and only two spades, Hampson retreated to 3D. (Note that 2S would likely be defeated by South getting two heart ruffs.)

DelMonte led the CQ, covered by the king and ace. Kolesnik returned the D6. Hampson covered with the D9 and Ish ducked. Hampson can succeed at this point by overtaking the D9 with the ten in dummy and playing a heart to the ten. East will win the king and declarer will have his nine tricks.

Hampson didn't overtake and, instead, played a spade toward dummy.

DelMonte won the spade and continued diamonds. Hampson won the diamond and played a heart to the ace and the HQ. Ish covered with the king and Hampson ruffed in dummy. He ruffed a spade, ruffed a heart, and claimed eight tricks for a one-trick set. E/W +100

When Rosenberg/Stamatov held the N/S cards, their more aggressive style produced a different result. Stamatov bid a game-forcing 2D over the 1H opener and they found themselves in 5D. Unfortunately for N/S, there is no making game.

Levin led the S5 to Weinstein's queen and Weinstein continued spades. Stamatov won the SA and played a club to the king and Levin's ace. Levin returned the D6. Stamatov won the DT and played a heart to dummy's queen. When this lost, the contract was set three tricks. E/W+300 and 5 very necessary IMPs to Nickell

Notice that if Stamatov had guessed to play a heart to the ten instead of the queen, the match would have ended in a tie! We might still be watching a playoff! Extra boards are tougher on the "seniors" than the "juniors" and with even Katz turning 65 yesterday, it is likely both Howie and Jack would have predicted Kolesnik if for nothing else than the team's youthful stamina!!

In both semifinal matches, 10 IMPs were swung on Board 59 when one table stopped in 6N and the other table bid a shaky 7D contract.

In the Spector/Rosenthal match Dwyer/Huang sitting E/W respectively had the following auction to reach 6NT:

2♣	P	2NT	P

1NT = 5+ H & 12+ HCP
2C was waiting
2NT = no extras

South led the D7. Dwyer won the ace and finessed for the heart queen. Dwyer ducked a heart to South's ten and won the club return in dummy. Declarer cashed three rounds of spades and led the DK. When the DJ dropped, Dwyer claimed twelve tricks.

In the Nickell/Fleisher match, Bramley/Woolsey used ten rounds of bidding to determine that they did not have a heart fit, but did have all the aces and kings. When Bramley could not find a likely thirteenth trick, he settled in 6NT.

Levin/Weinstein sitting E/W respectively had the following natural auction to reach 7D.

5H asked for specific kings

Hurd/Bathurst sitting E/W respectively bid similarly to also reach 7D.

4H was RKC in diamonds
5H asked for kings
5S showed the SK

At both of the last two tables, a diamond was led. Declarer won the diamond, cashed two spades and trumped a spade. Trumps were extracted and the fourth round of spades was played. North was squeezed in hearts and clubs. At both tables, North discarded clubs. Declarer cashed the AK of clubs and when the queen fell there were thirteen tricks for the taking.

10 IMPs each to Nickell and Spector.
